

Dear museum team,

ViMuseo has further improved its landing page so that your museum is immediately visible to our visitors and therefore also to yours.

With your online visit or your current exhibition we will place you at the top, as you can see:

www.vimuseo.de

The new homepage shows our users that there is something new to discover on ViMuseo every day:

- Hundreds of online visits to museums from all over the world
- Almost a thousand current exhibitions on one page
- The latest news from museums
- Current blog entries and articles about museums & culture
- New products in the ever increasing number of museum stores on ViMuseo

For the first time, the museum world is shown in all its diversity and made accessible on one page.

And you can present your museum easily and with all its possibilities free of charge.

If you have any questions, send us an e-mail or give us a call – we are here for you.

With kind regards

Michael Sametinger

ViMUSEO
Long live the museum!
